

Common Core Resources now online

OEA has created a new section on the website dedicated to the Common Core State Standards. Here you will find OEA's official position on the standards and their implementation, as well as the reasoning behind them. This new section also includes a variety of resources to help you transition toward the implementation of the standards, including videos giving the rationale behind Common Core and individual educators' perspectives on it.

www.ohea.org/common-core

Join Us on Facebook & Twitter

- Stay on top of what's going on and share it with your network.
- Discuss major public education news with other members.
- Get updates on legislature, policies, and other vital issues.
- Learn about new member services.
- Get the latest details on upcoming OEA events.
- Collaborate with other professional educators.
- And provide us with your valuable feedback on improving OEA services.

How Charter Schools Betray Their Students and Communities

By Matt Blair, Springboro Education Association

blog.ohea.org/how-charter-schools-betray-their-students-and-communities/

“ We need more educators like Matt to come forward with their stories. By building an arsenal of stories like his it makes it more difficult for our enemies to push aside our voices as we champion the cause of seeing that all children have access to a high quality public education that is administered by caring educators like Matt. His story also illustrates to what level the charter school operators will go to in order to rake in the tax payers money. So, if you have a story to tell ... tell it, shout it, make your voice heard! Now is the time.

BECKY HIGGINS, OEA PRESIDENT

www.facebook.com/OhioEducationAssociation
www.twitter.com/OhioEA